

Blue World Carbon

Blue World Carbon (BWC) is an international company in the field of carbon development and advisory services. Our global team of professionals offers comprehensive carbon solutions to our clients in the renewable energy and energy efficiency sectors in both the CDM and JI market. BWC is headquartered in Belgium (Brussels) with offices in Russia, Ukraine, South Africa and Singapore and expanding further into Southeast Asia.

The company is expanding its presence across its main client markets and is currently seeking best-in-class professionals for its offices in Singapore, Indonesia and Vietnam. We are looking to attract those individuals that excel in their field and have a strong passion for their work. We are offering a dynamic working environment in a fast-growing organization, with an opportunity to develop and grow within the organization. We provide a competitive remuneration package and incentive structure.

Position Title	CDM / Carbon Consultant – Singapore
Team	Operations
Work Experience	Minimum of 2 years working experience in CDM development
Location	Singapore
Brief Job Description For its regional headquarters in Singapore, BWC is seeking a dynamic and intelligent individual who is capable to work independently. The primary responsibility of the CDM/ Carbon Consultant will be to execute the full CDM project development process from initial screening to registration. He/she will also provide support and coordinate activities taking place in regional offices. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Execute screening and assessment of projects, including for internal and external due diligence procedures; • Liaise with clients to obtain and prepare project documentation, including technical and financial aspects of the projects; • Prepare all carbon documentation including the Project Design Document (PDD) and supporting documents; • Manage and support the validation and registration process, and guide the client through the overall registration cycle • Provide post-registration services to clients to ensure timely delivery of contracted carbon volume • Maintain good relationships with existing clients by frequent visits and updates on project progress • Be an integral part of the company’s risk management process by providing critical feedback on project progression • Oversee and coordinate the execution of projects within the region, monitor its progress and provide support where needed • Develop and provide training programs to overseas colleagues to further enhance their local capabilities
Key competencies: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Degree in engineering, environmental sciences or equivalent scientific disciplines; ▪ Intimate familiarity with the CDM process, including having been the developer/reviewer/auditor of CDM projects across all major regulatory steps (LoA, Validation, Registration, Issuance); 2 years minimum experience required. ▪ Experience as DOE auditor and/or renewable energy/energy efficiency project manager is considered an asset; • Good understanding across various sectors, including renewable energy and energy efficiency • Capacity to work independently and under pressure ▪ Fluent in both English and additional regional language

- Resourceful team player with excellent interpersonal skills
- Experience in PoAs is considered an advantage

Others:

- Should be willing to travel extensively
- Excellent growth opportunities within a growing global player

Application procedure:

Send your resume with accompanying email indicating CDM related working experience and salary expectations to HR_SEA2@BlueWorldCarbon.com . Candidates will only be contacted in case they are shortlisted.

Applications in which the salary expectations and 2 year CDM working experience are not clearly provided in the accompanying email are not considered in the further hiring procedure.